I see a little boy standing on his front porch
Wearing a superman cape
Hands on his hips, eyes on the sky
You can see it all over his face

It's a beautiful maybe
You know he's gotta try
It's a beautiful maybe
And baby he just might fly

I see that boy growing up into the world
Reaching for somebody's hand
Promising love through the dark and the light
Staying strong and true to the end

Oh, it's a beautiful maybe
You know you gotta try
It's a beautiful maybe
And baby you just might fly

So many things hinge on hope
They thrive on faith, drive on dreams
It all leans on love

I see an old man laying white roses
On a carved marble stone
He sends out a prayer up into the blue
And he feels like he's not alone
Oh, he feels like he's not alone

And it's a beautiful maybe
You know you gotta try
It's a beautiful maybe
And baby you just might fly
Little boy you're gonna fly
I believe we're gonna fly
It all leans on love
It all hinges on hope
It's a beautiful maybe yeah
You just might fly
