If I don't get mad at you, you don't see my point
Then you get mad at me for raising my voice
It only gets worse with every little thing we say
It happens so fast, we can't get out of the way

I put my footprints all over your heart
You keep your distance and your silence
And we hurt a while, then we kinda smile
Then you touch me and I tell myself
I'd rather fight with you than love anybody else

The toilet seat you leave up, dirty dishes in the sink
When you roll your eyes at me and talk before you think
When I'm not in the mood, and you won't understand
When I know what I want and you go changing our plans

I put my footprints all over your heart
You keep your distance and your silence
And we hurt a while, then we kinda smile
Then you touch me and I tell myself
I'd rather fight with you than love anybody else

It's always the little things (little things)
That don't matter anyway
But they make life interesting (interesting)
Going through the day

I put my footprints all over your heart
You keep your distance and your silence
And we hurt a while, then we kinda smile
Then you touch me and I tell myself
I'd rather fight with you than love anybody else

Ohhhhh I'd rather fight with you than love anybody else

I love you, baby
