Love baby love MarQ Khan

Was looking through the pages baby of my life did so many wrongs trying to get it right Took so many shots trying to make it through believe me when i say it was all for you.

was looking at the lines baby on my face,
The passage of time you know you can't erase,
Took so many shots trying to make it through
believe me when i say it was all for you.

was looking back at pictures baby black and white, There's been so many changes some wrong some right,
Shots that i took girl to make through,
believe me when i say it was all for you.

Was looking back at dreams that we both had shared,
Reaching for the skies girl those who dare,
Shots that i took girl to make through,
believe me when i say it was all for you

Chorus

Love baby love- It feels so good just to call your name, love baby love- It feels so good just to have you here.
Just to have you here!

Refrain

And even though the pictures have faded,
And the skies are all now turning to gray,
Even though the pictures have fade

Chorus

Love baby love- It feels so good just to call your name,
love baby love- It feels so good just to have you here.
Just to have you here!

Now looking back at life and the ups and downs Fighting every fight just to stand my ground sometimes i think about how lucky i am

To have a girl like you to hold my hand
Yeah! Yeah! Yeah! Yeah!

sometimes i think about how lucky i am,
To have a girl like you who understand,
Yeah! Yeah! Yeah! Yeah!

Chorus

Love baby love- Talking girl about you and me.
Love baby love- Talking girl about the way its been
The way its been.

sometimes i think about how lucky i am
To have a girl like you to hold my hand
Yeah! Yeah! Yeah! Yeah!

sometimes i think about how lucky i am,
To have a girl like you who understand,
Yeah! Yeah! Yeah! Yeah!

Chorus

Love baby love- Talking girl about you and me.
Love baby love- Talking girl about the way its been,
Yeah! Yeah! Yeah!
