Now, are you afraid or is the heart set on it's time?
Cold, the silence reigns, do we close our blackened eyes?

I'm calling on our testament to overcome
I'm calling on, it's now or never

Overcome
I'm calling on my testament to overcome
I'm calling on to overcome

We stand strong, we won't break
Side by side we overcome

Now deliver us from all the hell I've seen
Now deliver us for there's fire in these veins
We're calling on the strengths that I've come to know
I'm calling on, it's now or never

Overcome
I'm calling on the strengths that I've come to know
I'm calling on to overcome

We stand strong, we won't break
Side by side we overcome
