It's true there were better ones
That led their people
It's true there were better ones
To lead their country

It's true there were better ones
Who cared for this world
It's true there were better ones
But who are we to change

Without the strength of all
The nations will crumble
The nations will crumble
The nations will crumble

Feed lies for war
Bring the nations to it's knees
Risking worldly structure and integrity

Feed lies for war
Bring the nations to it's knees
Risking worldly structure

The balance of our kind
Controlled by hatred, distorted truth and lies
The balance of our kind
Controlled by hatred, distorted truth and lies

United is the only way to stand
United is the only way to stand
Leaders of the free world
Lead into the land of the un-free

God sent politics
Hammered down with a fist too bold
Play the council of pawns
In the quest for total control

Free us of this hate
Free us from this hate

Take over the world

Does hate mean freedom?
Divide our home
Does hate mean freedom?

Take over the world
Does hate mean freedom?
Does hate mean freedom?
Does hate mean freedom?

Taking over the world, divide our world
Does hate mean freedom?
Taking over the world, divide our world
Does hate mean freedom?
