Victim-the cards were dealt with less time for me Rebel-my only way to avoid your sympathy Virtue-spellbinding charm, and the strength of a hurricane Blacksheep-the rebel son, that clashed with authority

Powerless-at least i have tonight the roads not long-at least i have tonight

Bloodline-few will see this through till the end Cower-some hide in fear,controlled by ignorance Eyes closed-the cruelest site for those to see Sting-your conscience seared as anguish tears away

I might not come back tomorrow please know i chose the right path for me

Chorus- I've lived,i've died i've done it all a thousand times and i dont regret a thing i've done this time was mine to have Wanderer-i've seen it all like no other man, i've seen the light of all worlds Father-i did my best for lack of my own Son-a ragged path,but the love was not unknown Brother-the best of times-a forever unyielding bond

Free-from this disease Farewell-i'll miss you all
