And i've been through the ages ever since the dawns
of time
I've seen the highest mountains even made it to the top I've seen the righteous stumble forever fighting for their lives

I've seen the wicked humble going through the darkest night
Ohh tell me why this rain won't go away
And I don't care what they say
I'm missing yesterday
Ohh

I've been through the fire
I'm losing all my faith
Always been quite a fighter
But i'm tired of losing

I wish I did it like Elijah
And reach beyond the sky
What about Jeremiah
Will you hear me when I cry

Ohh tell me why this pain won't go away
And I don't care what they say
I'm missing yesterday
Yesterday
Yesterday
Ooh
La la la
La la la
La la la
La la la
