

Unexpected "Desert Urbania"

So much for the wicked bonds strangling inspiration Silent...you retreat into the Temple Desert Urbania and drown...
Deep within the mosaic
of an inward fraction Float forth subtle emissaries from outer-materia Emerging, but THEY are one, blooming on Mount Chimera
Globular insinuation, mystic mood in a nameless location.

Sink and desert Urbania
"He offered me a shapeless way so unusual A breach in the maze to feel the unexplainable".
Mere words!
They're not suitable swords
To elate the pagans and their hordes (Veiled treasure, I still dream beyond this mortal frame)
We must focus on guiding pupils willing to soar
The school of thoughts, mirage haven for the sightless to explore.

"Dancing on the limbs of a venerable and graceful oak Escorted by fading Elvish shadows, to me He spoke

"Truth is a shattered sun blinding the senses of nations proclaiming they gaze at the right fragments...
In this perspective...
I prefer okapis to humans".

Admire the Invisible,
The misunderstood majesty of the imaginative ghost
Seize the momentanous splendour, disciple
Short-lived, Fleetingly sublime.

Admire the Invisible,
The misunderstood majesty of the imaginative ghost

Acknowledge
with serenity the inescapable gaping jaws Obsession of the voracious clock...

Standing on the edges of reality, one could magnify even a sea
Believe and develop your innermost We conjure you, be our host...

Controlled madness
Lucid mummy
Ghoulish caress
Acid coffee
Would it seem senseless?
If we scream like banshees ?

Orchestrated wonders
"Lose your way" and plunder
A charred Bone-Wheel is spinning Unique !! Everything is yours to taste...
Wave it still... Long Live The King!
Want to peel your skin? There is no haste...
Trancelike motion
Absorb our potion...
