"When Two Years Collide"

Visit "When Two Years Collide" on MotoLyrics.com

Seasons turn to the main event reasoned by the year turn'n cold

You focus all on when two years collide and the fireballs do climb the sky

As they ever did before
At least since we do know for sure the numbered sheets of days fall pretty young to the floor

Flickering lights inside the all-night- cinema turn of day & night

shine oretty lonely eyes

Covering it all up in unobtrusiveness scanning the feating fire for the ingredients another incident
another accident

We scatter hope all around to endue our days from now on Encouraged to strip off this period like a clown's costume

As they ever did before
the numbered sheets of days
fall pretty young to the floor
