

Unhinged "Green"

Visit "Green" on MotoLyrics.com time has made me green and i'm standing here alone i've watched the changing scene, and i've no way to get home you cannot pretend that our love is gone for good don't take me for granted even though you think you should can i once more be my true self if headed for the gate would you still be waiting for me i hope you can stay time has made me strange and i'm talking to myself persistence cannot change what i see in someone else smoke gets in your eyes when you burn the bridges past razor blades of thought make the cuts of anger last look me in the eyes and tell me if there is another way your life is ruined just because you didn't wanna stay goin' nowhere.....
