I am only half-mad, no need to be frightened of me
I am only half-mad, screaming's just a passtime
I am only half-mad, but there's no room left for hatred
I am only half-mad, other half is rage and anger
I am only half-mad, sometimes I am self destructive
I am only half-mad, can't afford too much self pity
I am only half-mad, black and blue's my favorite color
I am only half-mad, other half is rage and anger
I am only half-mad, and my madness is unstable
I am only half-mad, my half-mind is fading slowly
I am only half-mad, screaming silence overcomes me
I am only half-mad, other half is rage and anger
I am only half-mad, but I'm trying for three quarters
I am only half-mad, got no patience for confusion
I am only half-mad, running out of thoughts to give you
I am only half-mad, other half is rage and anger
