Got a little problem, that needs resolve
If you don't get on top of them, they take control
Painted in a corner, don't step back
When you're lost in trouble you've got to make an attack

There's a time to run, a time to hide
A time to turn and fight
You and me together, we'll be alright

A tyranny of mischief, takes it's toll
Somewhere in the distance, the tale unfolds
That you're caught in the middle, wonderin' why
Why it's all such a riddle, that's never gonna simplify

There's a time to run, a time to hide
A time to turn and fight
You and me together, we'll be alri-ight

You know, whatever it takes I'll gi-ive you
Wherever you go, wherever it is I'll be with you
It's gonna get better - let's dance

It's gonna get better, from here on in
We're gonna have a good time, that ain't no sin
I've got a proposition, an improper advance
Oh, it's a war of attrition, you've gotta take a chance

Yeah, there's a time to run, a time to hide
A time to turn and fight
You and me together, we'll be alright

You know whatever it ta-akes I'll give you
Wherever you go, wherever it is I'll be with you
Be with you
It's gonna get better

It's gonna get better

It's gonna get better

It's gonna get better
