Beyond the plans, where the chaos reigns
We brood beneath the stars while ages past.
revel in the ancient spheres, where no life dwells Captured by the sacred songs and spells of the Witch
!!!!!!

The wind of the vortex, that swirls amongst the stars will guide our path, from the ultimate void Unseen and loathsome we descend to strike forth
We lie in wait, till the stars stand right, to come

Arisen, in Blasphemy, oh Lord, of hell hear the howl of the serpent, whose roaring fills the sky Sleeping, (in) awaiting, dead, but dreaming The legions of the horned, will rise up from their slumber
Never, scorn, to wear, the horns
Our servants do homage, celebrate the arrival

Treasures of darkness, treasures of night Open the gate, that I can feel your might Conquering, what, once, was We are tryin' to take control, we are tryin to take them all

The choir, of the damned, whispers, hunting requiems
We summon the storm, that annihilates the land
We choose, to live, our life, in Blasphemy Darkness shall be eternal, when all shall bow (be)for(e) our throne !!!!!
