I hate you. I hate you - shut up...

You think that I'm the one to blame

Everything I lose is just a piece of what there is to gain

You think it's cool and all is fine

Now is the day when you pay, this is my time

I feel for you nothing but pain

I am what you will be, you are dying in me

I love you, I hate you, I miss you...

You're always thinking you're so perfect

Those thoughts drove me away from home

But if you put me through your tests

Then I will fade

I have nothing to say

But I feel like my mouth is wide open

Everything that is real

Comes around

Comes around...

Shut up...

Your stupid face just makes me sick

I see you changing every day

To fit into the newest clique

I know you, but everything you do

Is just a part of you, you'll never see the truth

I hate the way you make me feel

I hate the way you think you're real

Your one voice it destroys my one choice

You're always thinking you're so perfect

Those thoughts drove me away from home

But if you put me through your tests

Then I will fade

I have nothing to say

But I feel like my mouth is wide open

Everything that is real

Comes around

Comes around...

Tu vida es mia

Your fear is living here in me

Es que no entiendo come en la vida puedes acer

La paz entre nostros cuando no vas a decir

Y la gratitude que tu nunca vas a ver

Has now turned to hate

I have nothing to say

But I feel like my mouth is wide open

Everything that is real

Comes around

Comes around...

Shut up
