A thousand conversations on a never ending theme Seem to linger in my mind like the fragments of a dream
That was once a part of you and remains a part of me
It's the unreal world we lived in that was born a fantasy.

We whiled away the hours making promises that might have just Changed the world we knew, if they'd only turned out right
But now I'm a little wise I can even raise a laugh
At the funny face you pulled on a faded photograph.

New days replace yesterdays in time It's worth to bear in mind that New ways erase, nothing stays the same
And now you've even changed your name

Forever I'll remember as I pass by on the train Streets of paradise we loved, now so few of them remain
Guess it's finally goodbye since we came so suddenly
To the end of childhood days and the way things used to be.

Mmmm.....
