Tiny robin, drooping feathers
Sits so lonely on my sill
Mate is preaching love and sweetness
On some far-off, far-in gale

Chorus:

Hear the voice fill the air across the country
I love, I love, I love all the world.
I love, I love, I love all the world.

Through our windows we hear voices
(through our windows we hear voices)
Proudly shouting, "Love Is On" (love is on, love is on)
And the frightened tiny robin
Waits to hear his mate's sweet call

(Chorus)

Mmmm.....
