Yeah man

Which one of these cars you gonna use

I might use the Celica, the Mazda, Nissan or Toyota

I heard they got that new PT Cruiser on there too yeah, which course we gonna use, lets try the Deep Forest

I heard that was fly

3! 2! 1! lets go!

foot to the pedal and the pedal to the floor hurry up and take off, adjust my seat everything cool cause I'm dippin to this beat sliding, slippin', smashin' off

I take the lead while others crash the wall doggy D-O-double G in the motherfucking Gran Turismo 3 doin things, I'm picking up speed while I'm switching lanes doin bout a 100 tryin to reach two my homie in the baby (baby) blue sittin on firestone, I'm trying to bring another checkered flag home it feels bad in the worst way when you in last place but look I'm in 1st so how I'm gonna trip of that cause if I lose I'm gon turn it off and get right back chose a whole nother car a brand new course with tunnels and trees

thanks for your support

I couldn't have made it without you

I doubt you ever seen a racing game this astounding picking you up when your downin

I drive when the beat be poundin knocking you all across your face you and your boys want another race?

in a whole nother place in a whole nother state

I was last seen doing 298 in a S2000 silver and black sitting in chrome lookin bad like that burning rubber smashing like that on the real deal live from the Apricot Hill I'm in hot pursuit being pursued by shit that's way to cute slipping out my lane swerving trough the grass man these cars be on my ass bumper jumper to 300 I'm doing too much I done lost control should I stop or should I role my mission is to position my paw and fold these others up even my brothers (whaa?) it's all about winning y'all know what's up Playstation 2 taking you to a whole new dimension where the cars look fly and they got good suspension did I mention it was tight though for real though Gran Turismo number 3 your listening to the sounds of the D-O-G baby riding slipping slidin watch out for the curve the cars be colliding dang you in second gear? put it in third and make sure you don't hit those white lines by the curb you wit your shuby do in the Subaru oh Lord I jumped in a dark blue Ford and he claimed he in it to win it don't you trip just make sure that you finish 1st 2nd or 3rd that's all that matters and I doubt there's a racing game that's phatter for real though gran turismo for shore though on the low do the game that's for shore yo put yo pedal to the metal and ax all the kids in the ghetto is the game hot like the kettle and I gurantee they all say hello ride on (x3) (fade) I know u swerving right there doing bout 200 in the fast lane yeah yeah yea what's the name of the game Gran Turismo for shore yo Gran Turismo (x3) (fade) is it the tightest game better ax somebody for real yo Gran Turismo (x4) (fade till end)
