Come with me tonight
And I'll show you the stars tonight
Ways to find our hearts tonight
To live on in eternity

Such a long way, away from home
Years pass by and no one knows
Feel it burning, the fire in your eyes
I wonder where the truth lies

Falling through time with you
Finding things I never even knew
Cross my heart and tell me
That I am worth of your love

Barely human, but I don't care
Fight for love, but I know what you'll say

Falling though time with you
Finding things I never even knew
Cross my heart and tell me
That I am worth your love
