Yeah, I've seen you around.
Yeah, I'm that face in the crowd.
Mind if I follow you around?
I've seen you around while drinking.
Oh, this sidewalk.
I've seen places you visit in town.
But don't be scared,
Watch you don't trip,
that will give me an excuse?

How can I miss you when everyday I see your face in a movie?
And how can I find you when all the time you're there?
Like a kid in a candy shop
we make choices that ain't fair.

Yeah, I've seen you around.
Cute in your favourite sweater,
always stripping just to impress.
Like kissing a vending machine.
And people will stare.
Beautiful girl, whoever invited to stand?

How can I miss you when everyday I see your face in a
movie,
or a black and white magazine?
How can I find you when all the time you're there?
Like a kid in a candy shop,
we make choices, yeah!

How can I miss, how can I miss you?
In this little city by the world, make it be such a waste of a pretty girl.
But don't worry your different.
How can I miss you when everyday I see your face in a
movie,
your face in a movie.

Come sit down by me,
(How can I miss you?)
I won't get over you,

(How can I miss you?)
In over 200 days,
(How can I miss you?)
And I'm soaring!
(How can I miss you?
How can I miss you?
How can I miss you?)

Make it be such a waste of a pretty girl,
such a waste of a pretty girl,
such a waste of a pretty girl,
It's such a waste.
Make it be such a waste of a pretty girl,
such a waste of a pretty girl,
such a waste of a pretty girl,
such a waste.

I've seen you around!
