Dancing in the snow
I let the sun drip down to warm my soul
Marching in a row
I watch their heads explode one by one
Strung out on a limb
The bitter tears flood down one by one
We were in the know
But let the vacant hearts turn to stone
Desperately alone
The bitter tears flood out an olive glow

Arrive, arrive in the night
Arrive like a thief, I'm waiting
Fall, fall to the ground
Fall to my knees, I'm waiting
Know we will never wake up
We will never wake up
