Cease to know or to tell
Or to feel or to be your own
Cease to know or to tell
Or to feel or to be your own

Have someone else's will as your own
Have someone else's will as your own

You are beautiful and you are alone
You are beautiful and you are alone

Often the ardorless and plain
Reward your grace
Often the ardorless and plain

Reward your grace

Confuse your hunger capture the fake
Confuse your hunger capture the fake

Banish the faceless reward your grace
Banish the faceless reward your grace

Cease to know or to tell
Or to feel or to be your own
Cease to know or to tell
Or to feel or to be your own
