I have a boyfriend, he says i'm his only one
We want to get married, but we're so young
So young, can't marry him, no
They say our is love is just a teenage affection
But no one knows our heart direction
So young, can't marry no one, no one, no one
I, I, I, I'm so young, so young
I, I, I'm so young, can't marry no one, no one, no one
Gotta go now, cry myself to sleep
This lovin baby who chants blessed to keep
So young and I can't marry no one, no one, no one
No, no, no, no, no one, no one, no one, no
