it was you who showed me the way
light to my path
and breath for my day
you took my hand wont let me stray, oh lord

it was you who showed me the fame walked down my path
you took my pain
rejected and bruised you felt the shame for me

and by your grace
you have rescued me
i see your face
smiling over me
and with this faith
with this faith i have in me
i come to you

why did you give up your life for me you took my sin so willingly you broke the chains and set me free
oh lord

you have rescued me
i see your face smiling over me
and with this faith
with this faith i have in me,

(repeat ch)
