sometimes when i looking at you feels like im looking in an angels eyes but not even angel can describe the magic i feel tonight from the top of your head to the bottom tell me how could everything be so right and baby girl you dont even try did you fall out of the sky

i dont want to wake up and find im dreamin oh no dont want to open my eyes cuz i wish every night could be like this that would be perfect

when im with you everything's hazy all i can say is yeaahh, yeaahh, yeaahh, yeaahh your a goddess, yeah
your a goddess, yeah
your a goddess, yeah
your a goddess, yeah

baby sometimes i pretend that you and i we the only ones on this earth feeling so damn good that it hurts, this is more then i deserve when i got my arms around you theres something about you that i cant put in words this is bigger then the universe, hotter then the sun it burns yeah

cuz girl i know deep down inside that you were from some other life and all i can do is sit and pray that you stay close but im afraid that you will go (woahh)
