Yeah!
Okay,
Think I'm lucky
Check This Out...
Every hood I've been to got them
Them chicks with the tight jeans
All them guys we checking for
When they're girls ain't looking
But you ain't gonna have that problem
Cause I swear they're ain't no girls out there I'm checking for

Cause I'm fine where I (am)
My friends keep asking me (damn)
Tell me how I get a girl like (that)
But I can't give them an answer
Cause I'm really not sure myself

How'd I ever get this lucky?
I think I found the girl of my dreams
So I'm never gonna let you go
No I'm never gonna let you go
There's something bout the way you love me
What would I do if you'd ever leave?
That's some thing I don't wanna know
So I'm never gonna let you go

Ever single stage I sing on I see the girls in the front row screaming all out of control
And they all want one thing
But you ain't gotta worry bout me cause
I'm telling all the shorties out there I'm loving you

Cause I'm fine where I (am)
My friends keep asking me (damn)
Tell me how I get a chick like (that)
But I can't give them an answer
Cause I'm really not sure myself

How'd I ever get this lucky?

I think I found the girl of my dreams
So I'm never gonna let you go
No I'm never gonna let you go
There's something bout the way you love me
What would I do if you'd ever leave?
That's something I don't wanna know
So I'm never gonna let you go

There's no one else in the world
Take it from me!
No one can possibly
Be taking me from you
All them other girls they don't mean a thing
You're the only one I see
It's all about me and you-ou-ou-ou-ou

How'd I ever get this lucky (how did I)
I think I found the girl of my dreams (you're my dream girl)
So I'm never gonna let you go
No I'm never gonna let you go no where
There's something bout the way you love me
(something bout the way)
What would I do if you'd ever leave (what would I do)
That's something I don't wanna know
So I'm never gonna let you go nowhere

How'd I ever get this lucky? (Ohh)
I think I found the girl of my dreams (Ohh Oh)
So I'm never gonna let you go
No I'm never gonna let you go
There's something bout the way you love me
What would I do if you'd ever leave?
That's something I don't wanna know
So I'm never gonna let you go

Yeah, How'd I ever get this lucky?
I think I found the girl of my dreams
So I'm never gonna let you go
No I'm never gonna let you go
There's something bout the way you love me
What would I do if you'd ever leave?
That's something I don't wanna know
So I'm never gonna let you go
