Said you call me
And you say that I don't answer
Maybe I made a mistake
I got lucky
It was one night only
And ain't no commitment made
One minute you in the front row
Next minute you at my front door
Baby you tripping
I should've known you catch feelings
And now you telling me you want it all

[Chorus:]

She's a maniac
I be ducking all her calls
And she checking on my caller I'd
She's a maniac
It don't matter where I go
Cause she always wanna be there with me
She's a maniac
She be over possessive
And she be always obsessing
And steady keeping me stressing
She's a maniac
Call me stupid and silly
But I still need her with me
Call me crazy
But I love her
And she don't want me with no other
Call me crazy
But I need it

And it ain't no way to defeat it
A maniac
A maniac
A maniac
And she don't know how to act
A maniac
A maniac
My girl's a maniac
And she don't know how to act

Am I buggin
Am I losing it?
Am I a victim of my own game?
Cause the truth is
She stepped in my life now my whole world has been rearranged
One minute we rocking at my show
Next minute I'm unavailable
Baby I'm tripping
I think that I'm catching feelings
Don't think that I can take this anymore

[Chorus]

All my heart and soul she's taking over
Why oh why
I can't get enough of her
I try to shake this feeling
I'm losing control I know
But I am in love with a maniac
She got me not knowing how to act
I love her crazy and all that

[Chorus]
