Panic, let's go for a ride,
I'll start a revolution if it takes all night.
And I see by the look in your eyes that there is so much more.
So stay here, just stay here,
Don't you ever leave here, and don't you ever leave me.

Just think open thoughts.
If I recall the confessions of a kamikaze,
Kill us all, will kill us all, and this is all.

Holler, where were you when I needed you most?
And I don't want this to end,
So please stay, so please stay.
Don't you let this end tonight.
Stay here, just stay here.

Just think open thoughts.
If I recall the confessions of a kamikaze,
Kill us all, will kill us all, and this is all.

Will you ever call my name?
Will you ever call my name?

If I recall the confessions of a kamikaze,
Kill us all, will kill us all, and this is all.

Panic, let's go for a ride.
We start a revolution that lasts all night.
Think open thoughts, I always thought of you I thought..
Think open thoughts, I always thought of you, I thought of you.
