Tell me this is all I need to know
So we can die young
She gets everything she wants

I'd be mindful or I'll take you for ransom
My princess
Who's charming now?

This is where I leave
And this is where I stay, miles away
Keep your finger on the trigger
Aim a little left of center

He never loved you anyway
Don't fool yourself for nobody
Like blowing yourself away

She doesn't need everything
She gets it, it doesn't matter who she burns along the way

Am I as unstable as you are?
I think we changed places a while ago
I think the war changed places with me
From the outside to the in

This war is called incessant
It reminds how desire is fucked.
