She used to stare at the moon
It's the crazy ones, they're up all night
She sleeps alone
It's the warmth of her that never leaves

Will she always cry
'Are you ever gonna love me the way I deserve inside?'
Behind her eyes is deeper than you can ever go, you'll see

When she says, 'Stop,
If I open my mouth I'm gonna scream'
And this seems hardly fair;
I'm so taken and you don't look like you're gonna move
I'd be taken by you

My desert girl, I wanna watch you while you sleep
My perfect girl, she dreams alone
Will she breathe as fast as my heart beats?

Inside of here she never cries
Inside my mind she's everything Behind her eyes she sees what she wants her to be looking back at her

Strip her down, she'll come right in She'll get so deep inside
And make her come to her senses
Get on your knees and say it, don't stop

Open my mouth, I'm gonna scream
And I'll scream all night long for you, baby
I just wanna watch you move
And be taken by you
