Drunken, beautiful
She thinks that if I touch her
I can't let her go

Well maybe so, I don't know
I just don't want you to go away

When you're falling down, down so far
You're falling right into my arms
'cause I'm already down here.

And she wants to hear 'I love you'
In another language I can't speak
She's gonna make you a star
I hope you realize how lucky you are

Tell me now, when you walk this way
All the crazy faces you make
Temporarily insane for too long

I can't even watch you fall away
I'm listening to the way you breathe
And it's sad to let it go
I want to see you now and take you down

My consolation is her body
And my victory is her heart
