I wear the red shoes with the holes in
To remind me what we went through
Sit down here kick 'em off enough
Not had enough of you I tell you

You know the car you drive
Keeps breaking down and never starts
Next thing I'm pulling up to you
We're in the backseat driving it home

No one wants to be alone

What do you do?
What do you do
When everything is broken?
What do you say?
What do you say
When no words fit the moment?

'Cuz you're not here
And even if you were
All I could say

Is what do I do?
What do I do?
We're broken, but I can't throw us away

The video of our vacation's
Chewed up in the drawer beside me
She thinks I never got to watch it
I'm so glad, I made a copy

The sky, got bitter twisted
Just like you and me, I miss it
You snap it, bend it, burn it
Then you find, that you can't fix it

Fall back
On whatever still remains

What do you do?

What do you do
When everything is broken?
What do you say?
What do you say
When no words fit the moment?

'Cuz you're not here
And even if you were
All I could say

Is what do I do?
What do I do?
We're broken
But I can't
Throw us away

Breaking you in
Breaking your heart
I was taking it all
And I tore you apart

Breaking me in
Breaking my heart
And the damage was done
But I took what you got

We were breakin' it
Smashin' it
Takin' it
Lovin' it
Hatin' it
Drivin' it home

And now I'm all
Now I'm all alone

Oh, yeah
Oh, yeah
Oh, yeah
Oh, yeah

What do you do?
What do you do?

What do you do?
What do you do
When everything
Is broken?

What do you say?
What do you say

When no words
Fit the moment?

'Cuz you're not here
And even if you were
All I could say

Is what do I do?
What do I do?
We're broken
But I can't
Throw us away

What do I do?
We're broken
But I can't
Throw us away
