Crawling like a thunder slug now it smells like a war drug

here it comes slowly

deeply burried in the bowels
now it spurts out of the wells

here it comes slowly
here it comes slowly

we can keep that beast away it still lays in its gore we'll never stand fascism anymore no way out miracle, just stop it your blood has your neighbour really understood ?! we all wallow in dirt but there's a shadow to hurt

crawling like a thunder slug
sad shit flowing to the skin no one forget what you mean if it grows up like a death tree why don't we beat it down here and now ?
