"Going Nowhere"

Another town tonight a bar with neon lights all the locals sit there looking for a fight above the empty chairs the hockey game blares no one notices you're there

Chorus:
SO stay home tonight
you're going nowhere here and you're going nowhere fast stay home tonight
you're going nowhere now
and you're gonna get there fast

When you look in the mirror you wish that you were here ten thousand miles from everything that you hold dear in a world of philistines you're David with a sling but you got nothing up your sleeve

Chorus:
you get there fast
