"Coming Down Cold"

Another dead end night
I wonder who you see
I lost my senses
I lost my believes

Feels like I'm fading
Chill to the bone
God let me sleep
cause I'm coming down cold

Seems like a lifetime
Since you've been gone
Seems like forever
I've been on the run

Feels like I'm fading
Chill to the bone
Won't you let me sleep
Cause I'm coming down cold

I'm coming down cold
coming down cold

This emptiness
won't let me go
I fear tomorrow
I'll wake up old

But I'm not waiting
On this lonesome road
Just let me sleep
For I'm coming down cold

I'm coming down cold
I'm coming down cold
