i've taken all the locks from the door and i've picked up all your clothes off the floor am feeling all the fingers and thumbs and i'm gonna need a beat from the drums i was gonna make a difference today i was gonna go and jump on a plane but who you gonna run to who you gonna run to

i was gonna call you up on the fone but the thought of watchning tv alone
but who you gonna run to coz i'm the one who loves you yea can we pick up where we started can we be adults about it

what you saying
what you take me for i kinda get the feeling weve been here before i know
lets do something about it coz i jus wanna let you know

have you got enough for the cab coz a gave you everything that a had well who you gonna run to

amazing what a difference a day makes when tony said you'd gone up ya mates
but who you gonna run to coz am the one who loves you yea

waht you saying
what you take me for

i know
coz i just wanna let you know

and i've picked up all your clothes off the floorrrrrrr

what you take me for
i kinda get the feeling weve been here before
