You were the eyes in the face of fortune
I lost my way and I couldn't find you
Oh, oh no

We're not the first ones to be divided
Won't be the last to be reunited
oh
Oh no

It's like rain falling down
Drops of pain hit the ground
I can't speak
There's no sound when you're gone
(Yeah, yeah, come on)

I can
I will
I know
I can untie these hands
And get back up again
(oh-ho)
I can
I will
I know
I can untie these hands
And get backup again
I can
oh
I can
(Get back up again)

I have never lost anything quite like this
No second chances if I don't find it
No (no)
Oh no
(oh no)

You closed the door and you kept on walking
Left me behind and there's no more talking
No
Oh no

(Oh no)

It's like rain falling down
Drops of pain hit the ground
I can't speak
There's no sound when you're gone
(Yeah, yeah, come on)

I can
I will
I know
I can untie these hands
And get backup again
(oh-ho)
I can
I will
I know
I can untie these hands
And get back up again
I can
oh
I can
(Get back up again)

We're not the first ones to be divided, oh
Won't be the last to be reunited, no
(Come on, one more time)
When you're gone

(Come on)
I can
I will
I know
I can untie these hands
And get back up again
(oh-ho)
I can
I will
I know
I can untie these hands
And get back up again
I can
oh
I can (Get back up again)
