If you feel the joints then don't let on,
act as if everything is normal.
And if you find the cracks don't let them show,
I'll get through this when I'm done hiding.

Hello, hello, does anybody know me?
Hello, what am I doing asking?
Hello, hello, does anybody know me?
Hello, hello!

If you hear the pin don't let it drop,
cover this uncomfortable silence.
And if you feel my heart about to stop,
Please leave it to its own devices.

Hello, hello, does anybody know me?
Hello, what am I doing asking?
Hello, hello, does anybody know me?
Hello, hello!

If you see the sparks don't let them fly,
pretend as though I'm not igniting.
And if you see the space for me to try,
I will not fail if you don't tell me.

Hello, hello, does anybody know me?
Hello, what am I doing asking?
Hello, hello, does anybody know me?
Hello, hello!

Hello, hello, does anybody know me?
Hello, what am I doing asking?
Hello, hello, does anybody know me?
Hello, hello!
