I painted blue skies,
I painted green trees,
This seems nothing,
But an Eden with you,
With all my affections,
I really call you.
I painted white clouds,
I painted a silver moon
On calm and quiet nights,
It all appears dark to me,
I keep calling you.
I painted muddy mountain,
I painted swans white.
I painted all the world for you
Just Oh! Just for you.
How can I forget you,
I painted colored flowers,
I painted dawn and dusk,
I painted flying eagles,
I painted everything
But
I am unable to paint
My love for you!
