Well, I work all night and day to try to please you
To buy the things I never could afford
And now the wells run dry for me so I must leave you
But I don't care if you love me anymore.

Well, you go out on the town with eyes of cheating
To see a world you've never seen before
But my heart was always there to take the beating
I don't care if you love me anymore.

And you never show the slightest bit of heartache
When I told you I was leaving you for good
Well, you tried to justify what you did always Somethings are better left than understood.

Now the world keeps turning when we're not together
My troubles have all been washed ashore
But I'll sail the seven seas and then I'll end up knowing
I don't care if you love me anymore.

I don't care if you love me anymore.
I don't care if you love me anymore...
