It's one of those days when trying to make a dollar's got me wearing thin
And what I thought was right just turned out to be wrong again
You know it don't pay to have a broken back From carrying all those worries round Honey, I have found.

I got you to make me love you I got you to make me
care
I got you right here beside me when nothing else is there
It don't matter about the money cause I got your lovin' honey
And I could lose it all today but I got you.

--- Instrumental ---

You know me well, well, enough to know if it's me or only my foolish pride That make me say the things to you that only make you cry
And you can tell when the time is right to hold me tight or let me go Darling, I need you so.

I got you to make me love you I got you to make me
care
I got you right here beside me when nothing else is
there
It don't matter about the sorrow 'cause I'll still have you tomorrow
And I could lose it all today but I got you.

--- Instrumental ---

Well, it don't matter about the sorrow 'cause I'll still have you tomorrow
And I could lose it all today but I got you.

And I wish there was a way but words could never say
The love I feel today cause I got you...
