Mavericks, The
"I Should Have Been True"

(Raul Malo - Stan Lynch)

You held my hand
I was your man
I know that I was wrong to lie
If I could go back in time
Back when you were mine
I could hold you tight
And be with you.

I should have been true
I should have been blue
I shouldn't wonder why you're gone
I should have known that I was wrong.

Your eyes, your lips
Your touch I'll miss
The nights are long
Since you've been gone.

If I could go back in time
Back when you were mine
I could hold you tight
And be with you.

I should have been true
I should have been blue
I shouldn't wonder why you're gone
I should have known that I was wrong.

--- Instrumental ---

If I could go back in time
Back when you were mine
I could hold you tight
And be with you.

I should have been true
I should have been true
I should have been blue
I shouldn't wonder why you're gone

I should have known that I was wrong.

I should have been true
I should have been true
I should have been blue
I shouldn't wonder why you're gone
I should have known that I was wrong.

--- Instrumental to fade ---
