"Missing You"

(Raul Malo - Al Anderson)

It hurts to be alone every day that you've been gone
I tell myself there'll be someone else but that won't do
Each night that passes by I long to hold you tight
I can't let go oh don't you know I'm missing you.

Sometimes I fool myself and make believe
That when you're in his arms you'll think of me
Though you're not here with me I still want what used to be
I need you so oh don't you know I'm missing you.

--- Instrumental ---

Sometimes I fool myself and make believe
That when you're in his arms you'll think of me
Though you're not here with me I still want what used to
be
I need you so oh don't you know I'm missing you.

I need you so oh don't you know I'm missing you.
Missing you, missing you...
