Someone should tell her how much I love her
'Fore she goes and runs away with him
If you should see her tell her I need her
Maybe then she'll come back to me.

Ever since I broke her heart
She won't talk to me
All I need is one last chance
To make up and say I'm sorry.

Someone should tell her how much I love her
'fore she goes and runs away with him
If you should see her tell her I need her
Maybe then she'll come back to me.

I've never been the kind
To get down on my knees
If she could see me know
A lonely man who's begging please.

Someone should tell her how much I love her
'fore she goes and runs away with him
If you should see her tell her I need her
Maybe then she'll come back to me.

--- Instrumental ---

Someone should tell her how much I love her
'fore she goes and runs away with him
If you should see her tell her I need her
Maybe then she'll come back to me.

Maybe then she'll come back to me.
Maybe then she'll come back to me...
