here is gloomy dark and cold the terror has been unfold destructive power will erupt this madness has to be stopped unleashed power is released

it's making this world diseased polluted landscape is devoid

too much of nature is exploit when will they deliberate see the growth that suffocate look what's going on around are there graces to be found unleashed power is released

the fire sweeps over the plain what are we going to obtain how long can the balance last the obstacle is too vast unleashed power is released
