I've got nothing?
Left for you to take away?
I know you blame me?
For every time you walked away?
So what you hate me?
And everything I seem to do?
So look back?
Don't turn away?
It was my face that you?
Were lying to?

And in our lives?
We could find?
Everything just separates?
And in my live?
You could find?
Everything you want to take away?

So what its not the same?
Every word out of your mouth is shit?
So look back?
Don't turn away?
It was my face and I am through with it?

Why its all its old?
And every part it takes?
I know your faith?
You give but take another way?

So what you hate me?
And everything is seem to do?
I know that you blame me for everytime?
I walk out on you?
I've got nothing
