Look back inside
Will I ever realize
That this thing
this man was me
But then I suffocate
Everything that I relate
It's not the same
Life that we knew it

I bleed my life
I shed my skin
I'm dying deep within
'cause everything's my fault
But then I suffocate
Everything that I relate It's all your Life that we knew it

And here I can find out that you're nothing better
and here I can find out that
you just don't care

Left outside
Left to dry
Don't know all the reasons why
Everything is my fault
But then I suffocate
Everything that I relate
It's not the same
Life that we knew it

And here I can find out that
you're nothing better
and here I can find out that
you just don't care
