the wind carries on enticing voice blackbird suffly has made her choice I feel her power possessing me trapped in her moisty cave my destiny black bird black bird my horny spirit premortemly unsatisfied devouring mortals

like sheep by wolves
blackbird blackbird fly

she haunts my dreams her nails tear my skin
my soul my soul burns eternal pain
burns like salt on the wound the ultimate revenge of the only with black wings blackbird spread your wings oh blackbird her look will capture your mind her lusts were never satisfied

devouring mortals
like sheep by wolves
