Here we are again
Just you and me, my friend
Life is just a game
That we lose every now and then

You left us far behind
So thoughtless and so unkind
We've made up our minds
This is our time

We have one life to choose
Whether we win or lose
Just listen to the voice inside
Now watch it come alive

It's time we control
So clear that you were wrong
No longer we will cry,
Like angels we will fly

We hear the call (we hear the call)
We hear the call (we hear the call)
To be the men we were meant to be
Let our parents watch from afar
Know they are proud we made it this far

You left us far behind, so thoughtless so unkind
I made up my mind, This is my time

We have one life to choose (life to choose)
Whether we win or lose (win or lose)
Just listen to the voice inside
Now watch it come alive

We will live and learn
We sing our song
Theres nothing left to fear
Now our way is clear

We have one life to choose (life to choose)
Whether we win or lose (win or lose)

Just listen to the voice inside
Now watch it come alive (come alive)

We have one life to choose (one life to choose)
Whether we win or lose (win or lose)
Just listen to the voice inside
Now watch it come alive (come alive)
