rain falling around me can't tell if weather is warm or why I am cold? fame falls all around me can't tell if I should just hide or run some people hold onto their misery, a token of their lives
painted faces, warlike, they march on feel the end near, blinding and screaming for blood they'd do anything got two tickets to Peridon, just can't sleep I've got no reason to worry 'cause it's just a dream on my way to the classroom lit the fire

it's a burning desire
murder
water is needed

hate seems always following can't tell if I can run, can't find my way outside hate seems always following can't tell if I should just run or hide
some people hold onto their misery
a token of their lives

I've got no reason to worry 'cause it's just a dream
murder
water is needed...
