The Folks out here are kind
They let me sleep all day
They don't seem to mind
I'm dreaming my life away

There's traffic jams near The Hague
we'll have to leave here soon Sing our songs and go to the light of a lowland moon

And it seems like I'll miss Autumn in Edinburgh
That's the one I should have spent with you
With the rain lashing down, a fog on the Meadows
As the Festival lights, as the Festival lights go dim

Been wandering round this town trying to pass some time
It seems I know these streets as well as I know mine

The clock has turned to Five perhaps you'll be home soon I'll call and say I'm missing you and then hang up the phone

And it seems like I'll miss Autumn in Edinburgh
That's the one I should have spent with you
With the rain lashing down, a fog on the Meadows
As the Festival lights, as the Festival lights go dim

They let me sleep all day
They don't seem to mind
I'm dreaming my life away

There's traffic jams near The Hague
we'll have to leave here soon
Sing our songs and go
to the light of a lowland moon

And it seems like I'll miss Autumn in Edinburgh

That's the one I should have spent with you
With the rain lashing down, a fog on the Meadows
As the Festival lights, as the Festival lights go dim

And everybody's written a song, which says You've been on the road
Been on the road so long
As the Festival lights, as the Festival lights go dim
